

Seeking Safety Q&A

Q. Does the minority requirement just pertain to owners and contractors or to actual managers, employees, etc.?

A. It pertains to owners, contractors, managers, employees, etc.

Q. Regarding the flexibility of the individual and group sessions, since traumatized people are often reluctant to attend group therapy at first, could a certain number of group units could be exchanged for individual units?

A. Although the standard authorization package will include only group therapy, adjustments will be considered for individuals who are not able to initially attend group therapy.